Hi Candice,

Attached are the affidavit for all three subpoenas along with the invoices. To answer your questions, the server made two attempts before serving the previous set of documents from December. When serving the supplemental subpoena the server only made one attempt because he received the documents on the day he was making his last attempt for the others. The server did not attempt to call the subject with the provided phone numbers before the documents were posted. If you would like, I can have the server make those calls if you believe it would help. The server thinks that they are in full evasive mode and have been since he spoke with the subject sister on the first attempt.

Thank you,

-Taylor

Subject: Service on Tim Desrochers - Fort Collins, CO

Importance: High

Hi Taylor,

Would you or someone at FRLP be able to assist me with some questions regarding service on Tim Desrochers?

1. How many times did the server back in December attempt service on Desrochers at his Colorado address before they were able to serve him?
2. How many times has the process server this week again tried to serve the supplemental subpoenas?
3. Do you know when you might receive the affidavit and photos from the server?

We are preparing a letter to the Court regarding all attempts made and would like as many details as possible.

Thank you again for all your assistance on this. We really appreciate it.

Best,

Candice
